Community Leader Sal Iacono Honoured at Algonquin College

Community leader Sal Iacono will be honoured during a presentation at Algonquin College recognizing the Sal Iacono Family Bursary Endowment Fund. The bursary, totalling $160,000, was created in Sal's family's name to assist youth from Easter Seals Ontario, Christie Lake Kids, and the Children's Aid Society hoping to attend college. Recently retired as Senior Vice President at Bell Canada, Sal Iacono remains an integral part of the Ottawa community. He is the campaign chair for the 2008 United Way campaign as well as a long-time volunteer within the organization.
