

MEDIA ADVISORY

Date sent: October 22, 2007

Date of event: October 24, 2007

Algonquin College's 40th Anniversary Gala

Algonquin College will celebrate four decades of student success at its 40th Anniversary Gala in the Grand Hall at the Canadian Museum of Civilization, on Wednesday, October 24, 2007. "Stuntman Stu" Schwartz and Connie Bernardi, Radio Broadcasting program graduates, Class of '97, will be the Masters of Ceremony at this special event. Close to 600 high-profile guests will be in attendance, including local government officials and embassy dignitaries.

Jon Cassar, Director and Executive Producer of 24, Radio and TV Broadcasting program graduate, Class of '83, will be the feature presenter, and His Worship Larry O'Brien, Mayor of the City of Ottawa, Physics Technology program graduate, Class of '72, will be in attendance as the Honourary Gala Chair.

Who: Robert Gillett, President, Algonquin College
Jon Cassar, Director and Executive Producer of 24, Radio and TV Broadcasting program graduate, Class of '83
The Honourable Jim Watson, MPP, Ottawa West-Nepean
His Worship Larry O'Brien, Mayor of the City of Ottawa, Physics Technology program graduate, Class of '72
"Stuntman Stu" Schwartz and Connie Bernardi, Masters of Ceremony, Radio Broadcasting program graduates, Class of '97

What: Algonquin College's 40th Anniversary Gala

When: Wednesday, October 24, 2007
6:00 p.m.
Jon Cassar to speak at approx. 7:30 p.m.

Where: Canadian Museum of Civilization
100 Laurier Street
Gatineau, Quebec

-30-

For more information, contact:
Andrew McKelvey
Communications Officer
Algonquin College
Office: 613-727-4723 ext. 5450
Cell: 613-220-7796

1385 Woodroffe Avenue

Ottawa, Ontario

Canada

K2G 1V8

Public Relations

and Communications

Department

Office: 613-727-4723

ext. 7664

Fax: 613-727-7610