

MEDIA ADVISORY

Date sent: December 3, 2007
Date of event: December 4, 2007

Algonquin Hosts Christmas Flower Show Opening Night Celebration

Algonquin College's Horticulture and Florist students will be hosting their annual Christmas Show entitled The Christmas Parade, starting with opening night celebrations on Tuesday, December 4, and running until Friday, December 21.

This event will feature the voting of the People's Choice Award for the best floral arrangement created by Algonquin College Florist program graduates working in the Ottawa area. The winner will be announced on December 21.

The Christmas Parade will be open from Monday to Friday, 1:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday, 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Admission is free. Parking is free in lots 8, 9 and 12 after 5:00 p.m. and free all day on weekends.

Who: Robert Gillett, President, Algonquin College
Students and graduates of Algonquin College's Horticulture and Florist programs.

What: Algonquin College Christmas Flower Show, entitled The Christmas Parade, opening night celebration

When: Tuesday, December 4, 2007
7:00 p.m.

Where: Algonquin College
Woodroffe Campus Greenhouse
'M' Building
1385 Woodroffe Avenue

-30-

For more information, contact:

Andrew McKelvey
Communications Officer
Algonquin College
Office: (613) 727-4723 ext. 5450
Cell: 220-7796