

Media Advisory

Date sent: March 4, 2008
Date of event: March 6, 2008

Ottawa-Area Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep Dealers Address Automotive Skills Shortage with a $50,000 Donation to Algonquin College

Three Ottawa-area Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep dealers are addressing the current skilled-trades shortage in the automotive industry with a donation to the Algonquin College Foundation and the College's Transportation Technology Centre. The $50,000 donation from Capital Dodge Chrysler Jeep, CarCanada Chrysler Dodge Jeep and Southbank Dodge Chrysler Jeep will go towards the Algonquin College Foundation's Transportation Technology Campaign.

Who: Robert Gillett, President, Algonquin College
Kent MacDonald, Vice President, Student Services and Development, Algonquin College
Michelle Valberg, Director, Algonquin College Foundation
John-Paul Tapp, Dean, School of Transportation and Building Trades, Algonquin College
Jim Durrell, Dealer Principal, Capital Dodge Chrysler Jeep
Lynn Norton, Dealer Principal, CarCanada Chrysler Dodge Jeep
Guy Parker, Dealer Principal, Southbank Dodge Chrysler Jeep

What: $50,000 donation from three Ottawa-area Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep dealers to the Algonquin College Foundation's Transportation Technology Campaign.

When: Thursday, March 6
2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Best time: 2:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Where: S-Building Main Entrance (Transportation Technology Centre)
Algonquin College
Woodroffe Campus
1385 Woodroffe Avenue

-30-

Contact:
Andrew McKelvey
Communications Officer
Algonquin College
Office: (613) 727-4723 ext. 5450
Cell: (613) 220-7796

1385 Woodroffe Avenue

Ottawa, Ontario

Canada

K2G 1V8

Public Relations

and Communications

Department

Office: 613-727-4723

ext. 7664

Fax: 613-727-7610