Who: Ken Anderson, retired CIO of Canadian Blood Services and graduate of Algonquin College from the Electrical Engineering Technology Program in 1973 has been honoured with an Ontario Premier's Award.

College President Robert Gillett and Algonquin Alumni President Sherry Thurig will honour Mr. Anderson's achievement.

What: The Premier's Awards—six in total—are presented annually to Ontario college graduates whose achievements have improved the quality of life for Ontarians. The awards were established in 1992 to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Ontario college system. Every college is invited to submit candidates in six categories: Technology; Business; Health Services; Applied Arts: Creative and Design; Applied Arts: Community Services; and, as of this year, Recent Graduate.

When: Wednesday, February 20th at 6:00 p.m.

Where: The Alumni Association of Algonquin College will honour Mr. Anderson at the Alumni Association Annual General Meeting in the Main Dining Room of the Woodroffe Campus.
